

My library

Children's Book Week online Challenge

Entry Form

16 August 2008 - 25 September 2008

Write down your answers to these questions for your chance to win a great prize! The questions are inspired by the short-listed books for this year's Children's Book Week awards.

Use the online resource indicated to find your answers. To access online resources, go to goldcoastcity.com.au/library and click on Online Resources.

Log in to Encyclopaedia Britannica

1. What colour bands are found on the body of the coral snake?

2. In what year was soccer (football) made an Olympic sport?

3. What does it mean if a dog holds its tail high and wags it?

Log in to ReadPlus

4. Margaret Wild has written many books. Use ReadPlus to find out the names of these books. Name two of them.

5. How many books written by John Marsden are listed in ReadPlus?

6. Use ReadPlus to find out two of the subjects listed for the book The Lightning Bolt by Kate Forsyth.

Log in to CultureGrams

7. What is the name of the Egyptian national anthem?

8. What is Ned Kelly's full name? In what year was he born, and in what year did he die?

Log in to Grolier Multimedia Online

9. Which Australian state is also an island?

Log in to World Book Online

10. In which country is the Kokoda Trail located?

Your details

After you have answered the questions, fill out your details and return this form to your local branch library by 5pm on Thursday 25 September 2008.

Name _____

Phone _____ Age _____

Email _____

Library card no _____

My local branch library _____

Hints and tips

- To access online resources, log on to the library website at goldcoastcity.com.au/library and click on Online Resources.
- If you are completing the challenge from home or school, log in to the library catalogue with your library barcode number and PIN to access online resources.
- If you need help, you may ask a librarian or your parents for assistance.

Competition details

- Winners will be notified by phone or email and prizes will be available for collection from your local branch library.
- Participants must be aged six to 16 years. Participants may get help from parents, teachers and librarians. All sections of the entry form must be completed.
- Entry forms must be returned to a Gold Coast City Council branch library. Entries will be accepted from 9am Saturday 16 August 2008 until 5pm Thursday 25 September 2008.