

Adult Learners' Week

1 to 8 September 2009

Adult Learners' Week on the Gold Coast is part of an international festival of learning. Whether learning something new or picking up an existing interest join Gold Coast City Council Libraries and Learning Network Queensland as we celebrate Adult Learners' Week with a variety of informative talks and interactive workshops.

All sessions are FREE – book now at the host branch library.

Session	Venue & time
Introduction to AUSLAN sign language Learn the basics of Auslan (Australian Sign Language) a unique language used by the Australian deaf community.	Nerang Branch Library Saturday 5 September 10am – noon
Public speaking Take the fear out of public speaking in this introductory session you will learn easy methods to captivate your audience. This could be the beginning of a whole new you!	Burleigh Heads Branch Library Tuesday 1 September 1pm - 3pm
Business writing for business Whether new to the workforce or just brushing up your existing skills you'll learn tips and techniques to get your points across in clear and concise language.	Southport Branch Library Saturday 5 September 10am - 11.30am
Creative Writing for beginners Wake up the writer within and kick start the writing process with accomplished author Richard Davis.	Robina Branch Library Thursday 3 September 10am - noon
Introduction to Japanese writing Come and learn how eastern ancestors created this character writing "Kanji" and have fun with Japanese calligraphy and creating your own memento.	Helensvale Branch Library Wed 2 September 1pm- 3pm
Children's book illustration Hear about the fascinating process of creating a picture book with acclaimed children's book illustrator Errol McLeary. Be taken on a creative journey from initial sketch to completed book. Calling all budding illustrators!	Runaway Branch Library Thursday 3 September 10am - noon
How to take great Photos This workshop is not about your camera, but about what you and your camera can produce. Covering basics of composition, shooting techniques, movement, lighting and style it is definitely not to be missed!	Burleigh Waters Branch Library Saturday 5 September 10.00am - 11.30am

Workshops kindly provided by Learning Network Queensland - Gold Coast