

Online library

Welcome to your online library. Explore our catalogue and the range of online services and collections that you can access via the internet anywhere, anytime.

Please note: Some of the material contained in our online resources may include content suitable for a mature audience only. Parents and guardians are responsible for monitoring the use by any child under the age of 18 years.

Find articles

Find articles and information on a wide range of subjects. Great for research and study.

More information

ebooks and eaudiobooks

Choose from a wide variety of ebooks and eaudiobooks to read on your computer, phone, tablet, ereader or portable device.

More information

Music and film

Listen to music with millions of songs available including pop, country, classical, rock, alternative and more. Watch award-winning independent feature films and documentaries online.

More information

Magazines and newspapers

Choose from a wide variety of popular and special interest magazines and newspapers to read online including Woman's Day, Australian Home Beautiful and The Economist.

More information

Watch past events

Missed an event hosted by City Libraries? Now you can watch it online. We have filmed a number of past events including author talks, author interviews, living books and more.

More information

Computer training

Access a wide variety of computer training programs for beginners through to advanced. Learn computer basics, improve your typing skills, create a website and so much more.

More information

Learn a language

Learn a new language with fun, interactive online courses. Available for adults, children and ESL learners.

More information

For kids

Play games, get homework help, find your next favourite author, read an ebook or learn a language. Just for kids.

More information

Family history research

Discover your family history with our huge collection of historical records including census data, births, deaths and marriages, historical newspapers, military records, wills and more.

More information

For readers

Immerse yourself in all things reading with book recommendations.

More information

Hobbies, crafts and DIY

Discover new hobbies, take up knitting, learn a new recipe or work on your car with these online DIY and craft guides.

More information

Gold Coast history

Explore the history of the Gold Coast with our Picture Gold Coast collection and more.

More information

Key information

Ask a Librarian

Related information

External links

Library catalogue
