Lower Beechmont Conservation Area (Freemans Lookout Section)

Lower Beechmont Conservation Area is home to a wild koala population and at 775 hectares in size, it is one of the largest reserves managed by the City of Gold Coast. There is a car park and day use area with picnic shelters at the Freemans Road entrance to the reserve. From here, there is a short recreational trail leading to the northern lookout with stunning views over the Gold Coast. City parks are dog on leash unless otherwise indicated.
